

little about them -

I have written out
a few facts from memory, but I do not know if they will be available for your purpose -

The late Andrew Murray was my father's brother -

I am making a tour of the world, with an English lady - and painting pictures as I go - Japan was

a constant inspiration but China is far less so - here the work is so colossal
that it ceases to be picturesque

Yours very truly
Anita Murray
